

the Mexico Solidarity Network presents:

Justice for Chiapas!

Autonomy and human rights in the Indigenous Communities of southern Mexico

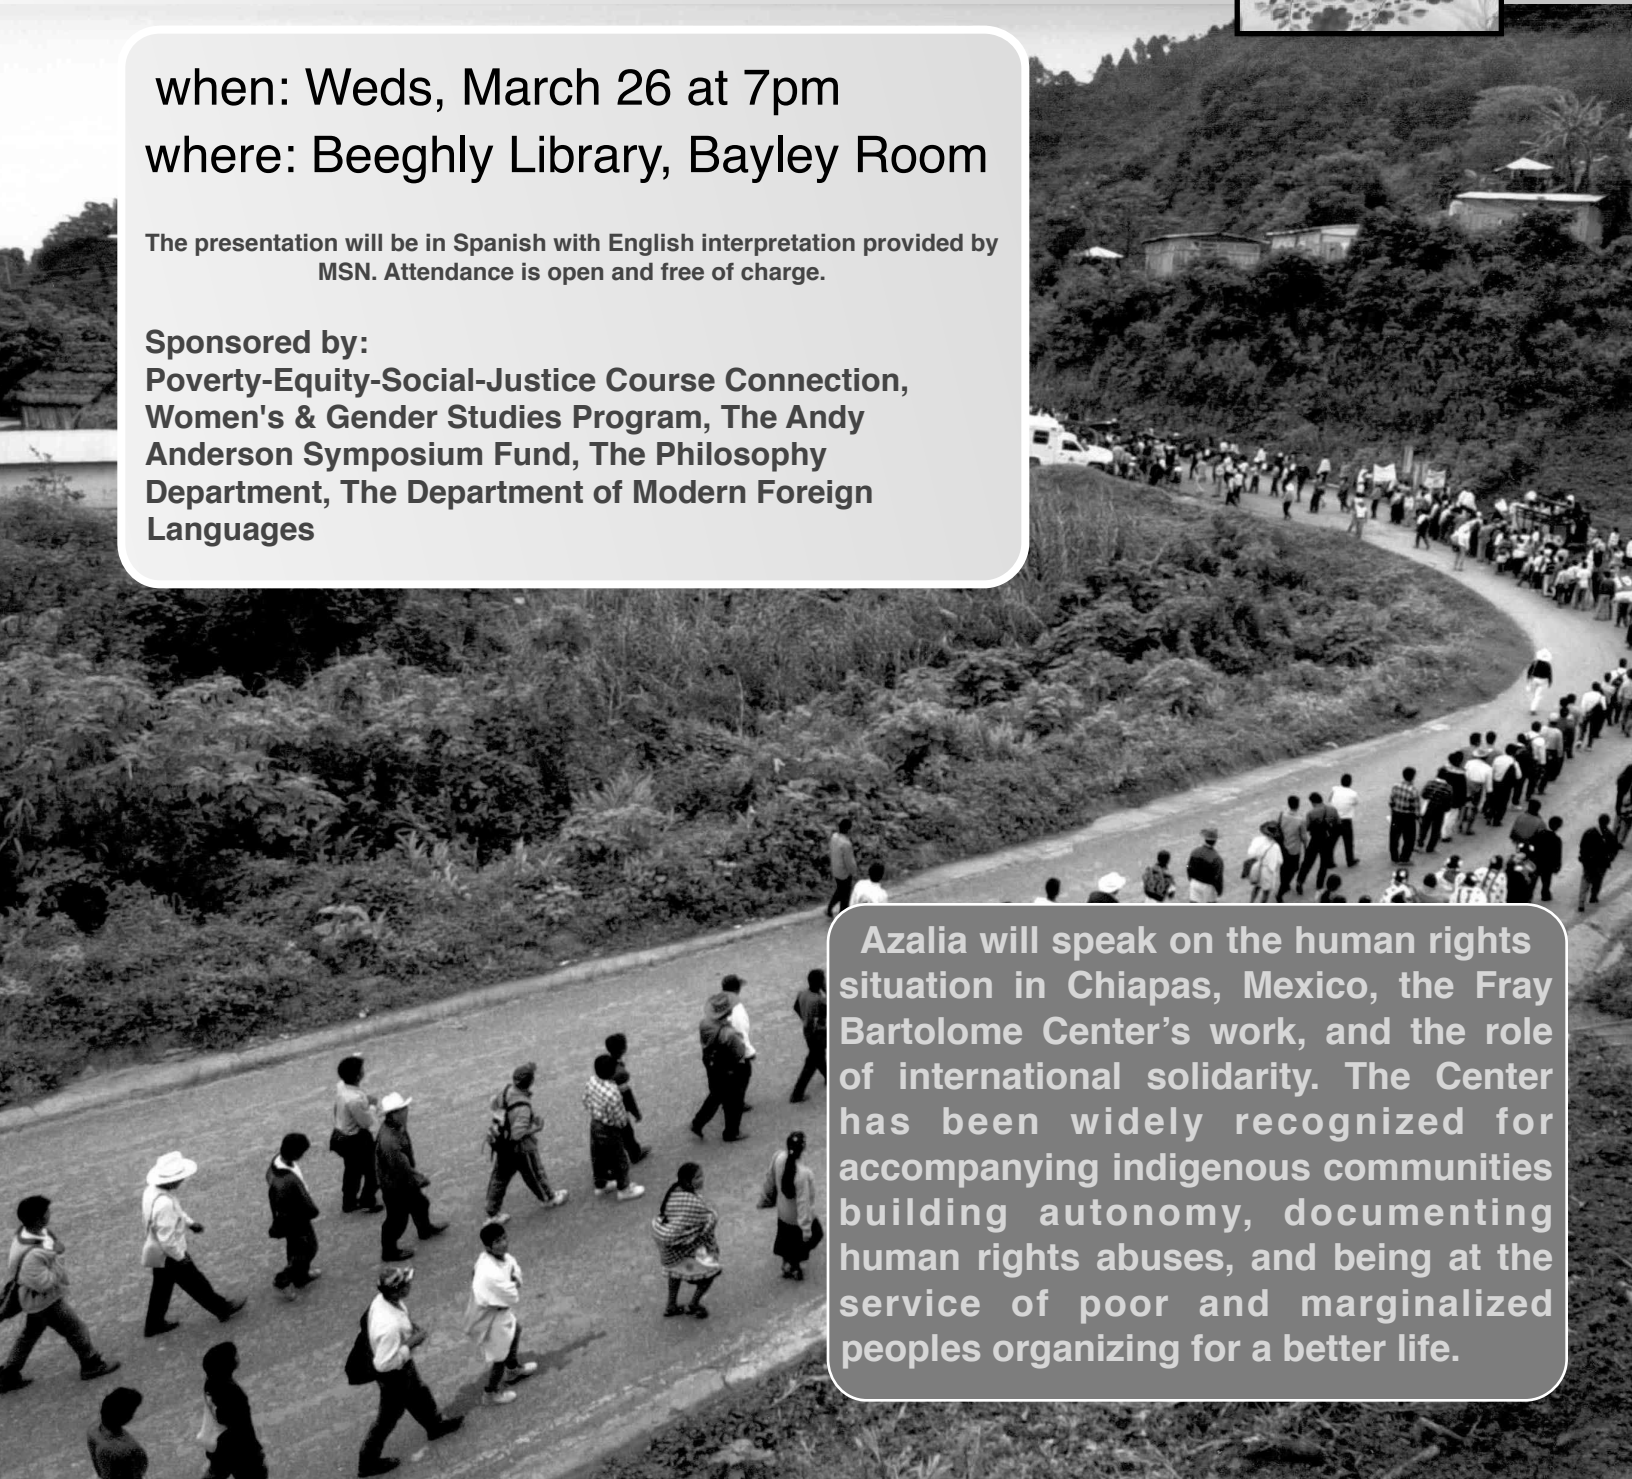

with Azalia Hernandez of the Fray Bartolomé Human Rights Center and Mexico Solidarity Network representative Stuart Schussler

when: Weds, March 26 at 7pm where: Beeghly Library, Bayley Room

The presentation will be in Spanish with English interpretation provided by MSN. Attendance is open and free of charge.

Sponsored by:
Poverty-Equity-Social-Justice Course Connection, Women's & Gender Studies Program, The Andy Anderson Symposium Fund, The Philosophy Department, The Department of Modern Foreign Languages

Azalia will speak on the human rights situation in Chiapas, Mexico, the Fray Bartolome Center's work, and the role of international solidarity. The Center has been widely recognized for accompanying indigenous communities building autonomy, documenting human rights abuses, and being at the service of poor and marginalized peoples organizing for a better life.