Fall 2018

MFL welcomes new faculty

Catalin Anghelina

Catalin Anghelina (French) graduated from the Ohio State University with a Ph.D. in Classical Philology (Ancient Greek and Latin). Although his main focus is on the Ancient World, he nurtures a deep interest and passion for French culture and language. He loves teaching French to students trying to cover both the linguistic aspects of the language - Catalin also holds an MA in linguistics from OSU- and the cultural aspects of the French culture starting with history and ending up with cuisine and the famous wines of France.

Brandon Cannon (Spanish) is originally from Dublin, Ohio and graduated with his B.A. in Spanish Education from OWU in 2010. He spent 2 years as an English language teaching assistant with the North American Language and Teaching Assistants program in Salamanca, Spain. Upon returning to the United States, Mr.

Brandon Cannon

Cannon earned his M.A. in Applied Hispanic Linguistics at Michigan State University, where he also taught Spanish.

Chunna Lu

Chunna (Anna) Lu (Chinese) is originally from China and has lived in the United States for 17 years. She received her M.A. from Eastern Michigan University in 2007 and in addition to teaching at OWU, Ms. Lu also teaches at the Ohio Contemporary Chinese School, the Ohio Chinese School and the Chinese Academy. She specializes in inspiring students' interest and passion and creating fun learning opportunities in diverse classroom settings.

Javier Mateo Lumbreras is from Logroño, a small city located in the north of Spain. He studied Primary Education and Pedagogy for six years at the Universidad de Navarra (Spain) and afterward studied for a MA in teaching Spanish to foreigners while teaching Spanish to international students at the university level. Javier is pleased to have this opportunity to come to Ohio Wesleyan University to teach Spanish and meet exceptional people in this wonderful country.
