

Alumni Award

Aaron Granger, Esq.

Class of 1993

With this presentation of Ohio Wesleyan University's Alumni Award, the Ohio Wesleyan Alumni Association Board of Directors is proud to recognize Aaron L. Granger, Esq. for his commitment as a member of the OWU Board of Trustees, chair of the House of Black Culture Advisory Committee, member of the screening committee for the Vice President for Student Engagement and Success, and for his work with students.

Aaron graduated from OWU in 1993 with a double major in Politics & Government and Religion. He was involved with Alpha Phi Alpha, served as past President of the Wesleyan Council of Student Affairs; was a resident assistant in Welch Hall, and ran track and cross country.

Aaron currently works as Associate General Counsel for Labor and Employment for DHL Supply Chain, where he supports the company's human resources professionals and manages all employment litigation. He also serves as corporate counsel for several business units within DHL for the Americas; and serves on the Diversity and Inclusion Steering Committee for the Company.

Aaron is an A/PART volunteer, a Multicultural Affairs student mentor, and has served on the Alumni Board, and as a Career Services volunteer. He served as the inaugural alumni speaker at Convocation in 2016, where he urged students to "connect with each other. Be ravenous about your education experience. It will serve you well."

Aaron is supported by his wife Stephanie and inspired by his four children.

For his past and present support of his alma mater, and his work to preserve the history of the House of Black Culture, the Alumni Board is pleased to present Aaron with the Alumni Award.
